Five sons, all holding high positions, and five daughters, remained to meet a high station, remained to mourn the deceased.

Neither the mother, Mrs. Camilla Hillman, 67, nor her husband, Mr. Zeb. ## EXTRADITED TO GA. FROM N. J. WINS FREEDOM

Colored Man Was Accused Of Slaying Deputy. Feared He Would Not Be Able To Prove His Innocence.

TRENTON, N. J., Dec. 16.—The State of Georgia and its people are no more pleased than other states that Governor Clifford Walker of Georgia stated in a letter received Saturday by Governor Silzer of New Jersey, in referring to the southern state's treatment of a colored man.

The letter followed the trial and acquittal of Silas Parmore, colored, arrested near Brunswick, Ga., as a fugitive from Georgia, and was in spite of his plea against being sent back to Georgia for fear that he would be made a victim of "mob rule."

Fear Extradition

Parmore was sought on a charge of murder in a dense forest in New Jersey, but when the authorities sought his extradition, he appealed to Governor Silzer, declaring that he deserved it if he had been tried, but he would never be given a chance to prove his innocence. Parmore used every legal means, stayed in New Jersey, but a party of law enforcement officers, led by Chancellor Bascom, and Governor Silzer, after a blitzy contested hearing, ordered him extradited.

Wants Georgia Officials

Governor Silzer warned the authorities in Georgia that Parmore must have a fair trial or there would never be another fugitive returned from New Jersey under his administration.

Governor Walker, in his letter to Governor Silzer, wrote that he was sure that the Executive would be pleased to receive official assurance that Silas Parmore had not been tried by a court in Georgia, given a fair and impartial trial and found not guilty by a jury of twelve white Southerners.

Yester evening, he said, he was sure that he should be given such a trial, and the same had been accomplished him without any pressure from this office or otherwise."

THEATRES

JAZZIE JR. CREATES A SENSATION AT THE BOOKER WASHINGTON THEATRE

WASHINGTON DANCING

Jazzie Jr. is creating a sensation at the Booker Washington Theatre this week. The little performer appears with Anna Mae Fritz and Bob work under the stage. It is the feature of the act and the young star takes the house by storm with his wonderful foot work. The song numbers all carry the "chill" of dancing. Jazzie Jr. is the "child" of dancing. The audience is up from the opening to the close, outclassing all juvenile performers who have appeared on this stage.

Jones and Chapman open the show in a lively song and dance act with a male member accompanying seven girls. The girls are in the "book" dancing with Russian elaborations the "Charleston" and other popular steps are receiving a rousing reception.

Melchior and Fisher also have a singing and dancing act with some good comedy.

The Jazz Jam Band includes two men and two women. They present a burlesque comedy-drama which is a travesty on the "jazz" band. It does not put up a strong plea for his female defendant but the states attorney had the case won until the comedy ramps the judge and causes a meadowlark.

CHOCOLATE BOX REVUE AT THE BOOKER NEXT WEEK

Gibson's Chocolate Box Revue will be the attraction next week, beginning Monday. The production is a musical-comedy Melange presented by a large company of talented performers. Roy B. Arthur, known as "Tin-Tin" in the "Tin-Tin" radio comedy, is among the principal stars. Among the other principals are Johnnie Stevens, a "dancer" — Bethel Gibson, a "character" — Gorden, a "comedian" — the Geechie Brown, dancer, Mafe Kitchens, singer, dancer and comedienne — Harry Belafonte, dancer, and Bitsie Johnson. The Gibson Trio, featuring Little Albert and Baby Canning also a chorus of pretty girls will sing and dance.

A special Matinee will be given on Christmas day at 3 p.m. Modica is "Pay Day."

THE PICTURE THEATRES

THE OLYMPIA

It has to do with a wild, weird mystery. "The Rock Buster" has been added and creates a pace after another. It is a series of thrills fantastically wild, weird, descriptive.

"Pay Day" with John Wayne, Wednesday and Saturday, features on Thursday.

A double program will be presented on Christmas day at 3 p.m.

THE STAR
The Chamber, Massachusetts, is an whirlpool of exciting adventures and hair-breath escapes that are typical of the "Rock Buster" and "The Bad Land." THE CASINO

Tom Mix will be seen in "A Cabin in the Pines" at the Casino this Saturday.

Bob Keaton in "Demand of the Bad Land" will be the attraction on Sunday and Monday. It is a colorful fast-moving drama of the great Southwest. It has to do with a wild, weird mystery.

Christmas day and next Saturday will have Bessie Love in "Arizona Sweethearts" a stirring Western comedy drama.

THE RETINA
Bob Keaton in "The Bad Land" will be the Retina Theatre attraction this Saturday. It is a stirring tale of the range country with Bob as the hero. Fighting his way to triumph through many odds and difficulties, the product of the story is said to be prodigious.

Leigh Whipperman will be seen in "The Retina" on Sunday. The story is of a family group from the wild Apache country. It has many hair-raising thrills to keep the bitterest cold to an end.

DEMSEY DECLARES BOUT WITH WILLS IS OFF

LOS ANGELES Calif., Dec. 16.—Jack Dempsey is safe from a fight with Jim Thorpe, but that rumors from the east of his having broken his contract with Floyd Fitzsimmons for a heavyweight bout with Harry Wills were true.

The heavyweight failed to reveal details of the alleged break of his contract and indicated that he will not fight Thorpe, but he did not say what the next step would be. He said he understood that another offer was to be made to him, but did not know what it was.

"I'm sitting here waiting. If they show me a satisfactory contract, I'll sign it and not have a fight."

Commenting on the champion's statement: Robert Benton, publicist, who has been spokesman for the boxer, came to him with an announcement that Dempsey was mistaken about the contract.

He said that the contract was good; that Fitzsimmons had done all he could do and that they had considered the contract binding until it was violated by the promoter. He declared that he had given the champion about as much of the bout as anywhere other than Michigan City, such as Chicago, was without basis.

CHICAGO, Dec. 16.—A fresh batch of reports on plans for a boxing match between Jack Dempsey and Harry Wills came after a conference Wednesday of Floyd Fitzsimmons, Michigan City, Ind., promoter, who obtained Jack, and Morris Siegel, attorney for Carson, Cullen, Miller, Dempsey's legal advisor. The two expect to meet Dempsey in Los Angeles next week to discuss the probable withdrawal of the South Bend Ind. syndicate from the match, and selection of a new set of financial backers.

It was reported that there was a possibility of the selection of Boyle's

ST. LOUIS ARGUS TO HAVE STRONG BASKETBALL FIVE

Will Challenge The Chicago Defender Five, Aims For The Championship Of The City.

The St. Louis Argus has proposed to give to the city a representative basketball team from time to time. The team will be the first semi-pro basketball organization here, although nearly all Eastern and midwestern cities have them. Another newspaper that has done notable work in this line is the Chicago "Defender" which has one of the strongest fives in the country.

The Argus (Bulldogs) five will be strictly a St. Louis organization, the players will be chosen through merit. It represents a channel wherein the manhood of St. Louis might turn its strength and skill into athletic and clean athletic diversion.

Any young man of the city who is brilliant avenue (Phone: Delmar 4236-M) will take charge of all applicants.

The Argus team is a member of the "Y" Basket Ball League, it will make its initial public appearance against the strong Arrow Boys Five on Saturday, Dec. 21.

Muddy went down for the count of seven in the first round, but the referee, Mr. C. C. Moody, requested that he be sent back to the ropes for a count of nine a few seconds later.

He fought better in the next rounds, but Flowers was never dangerous and every effort of the defender to get in close was a success.

In the seventh round Flowers opened a cut over Moody's right eye and the referee on his hands and face. Flowers earned cheers from the crowd for keeping away from Moody's head on account of the cut.

Moody, however, was not willing to let the bout go on.

He was sent to the hospital and

Flowers was given a 15-minute interval.

ANTI-LYNCHING BILL AGAIN

The introduction of the Anti-Lynching bill in the sixtieth Congress of the United States lends very little encouragement to the Negroes of the country under the present circumstances. Mr. Dyer, who has fathered this bill in the House of Representatives for many years admits that he holds on little or no hope of its becoming a national law, because of what he calls a hostile Senate. So there we are.

Of course, this will be very disappointing to many of the faithful men and women of our race. They will feel like one who wakes after a night of pleasant memories to find it all a dream. They will find themselves in the same position as the Negroes of the country year after year, when it seems so near, we find it so far.

Somewhat, the bill would get caught in the last days of the session.

We believe that Mr. Dyer has been sincere and has worked hard to have this particular bill become a national law; but we also believe that the big bosses, the leaders of the Republican party; those who plan and shape the programs and policies; those who hold the whip-hand, have decreed the course of this bill and Mr. Dyer is just now beginning to find it out. Their hands were forced and their real purpose was exposed during the last Congress when the Republican Congress allowed the Anti-Lynching Bill to perish under the protest of filibustering on the part of the Democrats.

We all know that the Republicans had the power, by virtue of their majority in the Senate, to pass the Dyer Anti-Lynching Bill. This talk about Democratic filibuster is all bunk, pure and simple. The more one thinks about it (one who really thinks) the more important we become. We feel like one who has been betrayed because we have trusted the Republican party. And only those whom you trust can betray you.

Some of the political prognosticators have already said that the colored people may expect very little from the present Congress. In fact, it is said that the national administration under Mr. Coolidge is offering us no encouragement, so far as action in our behalf is concerned. Segregation in the public offices at the Nation's Capitol is held before our eyes as the strongest evidence as to the real attitude of the administration toward us.

Can we do nothing? Are there any among us who can apologize or make excuses for these conditions?

You tell us to have patience. Have we not had patience for so many years?

For almost forty years the Republican party has been in power. Even now, in our national government, from the United States Supreme Court down, Republicans rule. Count our losses and sum up our gains during the past forty years and think. Do a little real thinking. It is time to think.

POST-DISPATCH CHANGES POLICY

The new Post-Dispatch, Louis J. Mills to the effect that the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, the leading white daily paper of this city, has changed its policy toward the use of the small "n" in printing the word Negro; and at the same time changing its policy in the use of the word negro when referring to the female of our race, comes as an agreeable surprise to the readers of The Argus.

We are pleased to note the change; and particularly in the practice of the use of the word negro. The surprise being that the management had the courage to make the change after many years of practice in what some of us call a "Southern City".

We believe that the use of the capital "N" in the word Negro is grammatically correct; just as correct as the use of capitals in the words, Greeks or Jews. We have also noted that the small "n" was in keeping with a general adoption of the white motto of minimize and maximize the Negro and all claims of superiority.

The use of "n" in "negro" by many of the daily papers has always been noted as being a reflection upon our women. It has been noted that the same word is used when referring to certain beats, like negroes. The association of the language of these terms with that used by white men in women's affairs is offensive and humiliating to us. And the language of the Post-Dispatch, whose influence is so far-reaching, will greatly relieve our burden, and will exonerate our own which is being daily smitten by the seeds of prejudice and racial hatred.

May the Post-Dispatch long live to serve humanity in an unselfish and fearless way.

THIEVES IN PUBLIC OFFICE

According to newspaper reports, Mayor Miller made one of his characteristic speeches before a church club recently, during which he denounced the public office holders of being the worst thieves—worse than the gamblers.

This means, however, that the Mayor covers every public office holder except himself. If he wears a silk hat, rides in a limousine, sits behind a heavy desk. Just who is guilty we don't know, but they should never, according to the public, as long as the mayor's star is allowed to go unchallenged.

The members of the City Central Republican Committee are under a similar indictment and suspicion because the mayor has failed to point out those on the committee whom he said ought to be in the penthouse.

We suppose that he will say next that ninety-eight percent of the public are hypocrites and then start hell "pop-ping".

We suppose that the mayor and the public will take much exception to what the mayor says about these public office in this city, as they will reason, no doubt, that the higher the office the greater is the chance to rob the public; and it so happens that Victor J. Miller holds the highest office in the city at present.

KLAN AFTER MRS. RHINELANDER

The Ku Klux Klan of Florida has called out the advance guards of its fogging-tar-feather party and ordered this guard to go and search diligently for Alice Jones-Kip Rhinelander and if she be found will break word quickly to the "Committee" who will go to wait on her.

Violence is threatened to be meted out to the young woman because she married a white man, and incidentally thereto, a deal of publicity was given her during court proceedings in which her husband sought to have the marriage annulled, on the grounds of fraud.

After listening to the evidence in the case, a jury decided the case in Mrs. Rhinelander's favor. This verdict has angered the Klan of Florida; and now the Klan of that State will demand a hearing on this young woman, according to the law of the Invincible Empire. If she is found in Florida, her sentence will be anything from a bare back lashing, hot tar with a baptism of feathers to murder outright.

This action on the part of the defenders of race purity should be followed just a little further. Follow some of these same to their dens after their hunt for Alice, and see if you do not find them lighting the bed-chamber of their "mistress," a Negro woman whom they have lived with, if not openly, secretly, for many years. They go so far as to play with their mulatto babies and laces them while upon their knees. Yet, when these same children grow up, and seek, or even permit the association of a kin to their fathers in a decent way, then it is called a crime against the church and society. So much so, that the Ku Klux Klan must be called in.

Christmas, that season of the year when all people in Christian countries are in a state of mind of life as reflected in the life of one who came to us in a new era in the world's history; Christmas in its true meaning is the season of the giving and receiving of remembrance by relatives and friends; Christmas that season of the year when we have to take stock of what has gone before during the previous months and what is visioned for the coming months and years; Christmas that season for the giving and receiving of remembrance by relatives and friends.

EDGAR BROWN WRITES ABOUT NEW CONGRESS

Sees Little To Be Done For The Benefit Of Colored People As National Lawmakers Take Up Work.

By Edgar Brown

It is to be so bad as to say the Capitol is in a fog over the introduction of the Anti-lynching bill but I honestly doubt it many of the Washington Negroes and their friends have yet learned that the Negroes are less appreciated in the country than ever before. The rocky road of legislation, as indicated by Congressman Dyer's H.R. 377, referred to the Judiciary Committee of the House and Senate Bill 121 introduced by Senator William McKinley of Illinois and referred to the Senate. The measure is explained in Senate 57th yearbook. A Congressional Record issued December 19, as a bill to ascertain persons with the right to sue for the state the equal protection of the laws and to punish the crime of lynching. It is essentially the same as the Dyer bill, but it has more room for more teeth put in it. It is as federal power to enforce some of the laws of the house was killed by a Senate majority in the 56th Congress; and naturally everybody wants to know what will happen to this.

First let me say judging by the conspicuous absence of N. A. A. C. I. officials, lobbyists, representatives of various organizations, and professional politicians this new move to stamp out the lynching evil by a federal statute is not likely to be successful. Senator McKinley from Missouri and Illinois respectively because they have been brought out of the heat of the battle west. Every other interest, manufacturing, agriculture, wets, drys, and especially the Negroes have been brought to keep behind the duly elected Senators and Congressmen reminding them of the approach of next year's election among other things. somehow the Negroes have as usual put their trust in the magnanimity of their white brethren but to do nothing to help back up their demands here in Washington. As usual it is the Negroes who I understand was in town for a day that insisted on the Dyer bill getting introduced.

Chair Pickett was number one in the ranks as the Senator. Secretary of his friend Bryan in the House who happened to be up here, and the chairman of the Naval Affairs Committee, so engaged now for twenty-two years and ranked first among the Negroes here, who sent to these dear gentlemen to see that the 59th Congress did something to make life easier for our children. We have been up here for the old gang predominating credit in the next week or so. But will the bill get any where?

It is to have a little chat with that great writer of American Jurisprudence the Honorable Associate Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes of the Supreme Court, native son of Massachusetts, who said about like this "I recall my first impulse to laugh at the old Negro friend of mine out of court, but he came pleading the cause of justice for the Negro so I listened and helped him out of court." That was Senator Curtis, Republican leader and of Indian ancestry, a Kansas who held his office for many years on his family's farm on his land over the protest of white neighbors will react when he is called to try and get a vote on the Dyer bill.

NORTHEASTERN LIFE INS. ENTERS WASHINGTON, D. C.

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 14.—Northeastern Life Insurance Company has just received a license from the Commissioner of Insurance at Washington, D. C., to do business in that city. The company will immediately open an office in charge of a competent insurance man and a representative office at one of the Northeastern Life of which Harry H. Pace is president, foraging rapidly to the front as one of the most prominent Negroes in the country organizations. It has attracted the attention of both the insurance press and the daily newspapers of the metropolitan area. In a recent announcement issued in the New York World, one of the biggest daily newspapers in New York, there appeared a statement by Harry H. Pace, Vice President and Director of the company, that the advent of Northeastern Life has aroused the interest which the advent of Northeastern has aroused in Negro business.

The company has a rapidly increasing large volume of business and is managed by a Board of Directors most widely known business men of the Eastern section, among them being Jas. H. Bullock, Chairman of the Senate. The measure is explained in Senate 57th yearbook. The Snow Man

December 2 found little Jimmy working skillfully on a snow man. He rolled a ball and stuck snow on it. This done he stopped, stripped his cold feet and blew his breath on his cold hands.

He then built a little of his cold, cold snow to set work on the body of the snow man. It was two feet high.

He stoned the wood shed for wood and again set to work on the body of the snow man.

RACE QUESTION ENDS PLAN FOR A. D. C. FESTIVAL

Colored Citizens Refuse To Participate In Civic Affair In Which Segregation Would Be Practiced.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 16.

The "Washington Music Festival" for 1926, an affair in which colored and white citizens were to have participated, was called off because race members on the executive committee of the affair refused to take a part, when it was learned that segregation would be practiced.
